CONDITIONS OF SALE.

I. The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the Auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.

II. No person to advance less than 6*d.*; above five shillings, 1*s.*; above five pounds, 2*s.* 6*d.*; and so on.

III. In the case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the Auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the Seller.

IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10*s.* in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money; in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and resold.

V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEBY, WILKINSON and HODGE will have the option of reselling the lots uncleared either by public or private sale without any notice being given to the defaulter.

VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are returned within ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.

VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections, and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.

VIII. No IMPERFECT BOOK will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.

IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot on any account can be removed during the time of sale.

X. Upon failure of complying with the above Conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the reselling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Gentlemen who cannot attend the Sale may have their Commissions faithfully executed by their humble servants,

SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE,
Wellington Street, Strand.

INTRODUCTION.

THE Second Portion of the magnificent Library of Mr. Beckford, now offered for sale, will on inspection be found to contain works equal in rarity and condition to those comprised in the first which sold for £31,500. In it will be found numerous gorgeous specimens of the most eminent binders, including Nicolas and Clovis Eve, Roffet Le Faucheux, Le Gascon, Monnier, Deseuil, Ruette, Boyet, Padeloup, Derome, Thouvenin, Bozerian, Simier, Baumgarten, Kalthœber, Roger Payne, Staggemeier, Walther, Welcker, Hering, Mackenzie, C. Smith, Charles Lewis, Clarke, Bedford, &c. &c. decorating volumes formerly in the libraries of Kings and Queens of France, and of the most eminent French Collectors, including Francis I, Henry III and IV, Marguerite of Navarre, Anne of Austria, Mesdames Sophie et Victoire, Duchesse de Berry, Madame de Pompadour, Comtesse de Verrue, Duc de Croy, Grolier, P. de Mornay-Plessis, Maioli, De Thou, Menars, H. Petit Du Fresnoy, Soubise, Girardot de Prefond, Guyon de Sardiere, Count Hoym, &c. &c.

Many of the fly-leaves are filled with Mr. Beckford's quaint and caustic MS. notes, showing what an indefatigable reader he must have been. Amongst the magnificent Books of Prints are the Fables et Contes of La Fontaine, Longus, edited by Coray, on vellum, with original drawings, the Longus with designs by the Regent Duc d'Orleans, the Heptameron of Marguerite de Valois, the splendid works of Mr. Gould, Gough's Sepulchral Monuments, Galerie de Versailles and other Galleries, various Pageants, Works of Hogarth, Holbein, Hollar, Houbraken, Mellan, and other eminent engravers, many with brilliant impressions in various states. The Voyages and Travels include many of great rarity, amongst which is conspicuous the Itinerarium Portugalensium, printed in 1508, being a Latin Version of the excessively rare first Collection of Voyages in small 4to, edited in Italian by Fracan in 1507, which sold in the former portion of Mr. Beckford's Library for £270, and the various important works relative to America, Russia, and other countries, several on Large Paper, and in the finest state. The Greek and Latin Classics are many on Large Paper, and those printed by Aldus, Giunta and Elzevir in superb condition. Amongst the Fifteenth Century productions is the excessively rare first edition of Lactantius, printed at Subbiaco in 1465, and memorable as the earliest work with a date issued in Italy, and lastly amongst the works of French and Italian literature will be found many of excessive rarity. The remaining Portion will be brought forward as early as may be practicable, and will be followed by the Library of choice and valuable printed books, known as the Hamilton Library, the Collection of Manuscripts having been already sold by us by private contract to the German Government.

19 GALARDI (P. Ferdinand de) TRAITÉ POLITIQUE DES AMBASSADEURS, des Ligues et des Ordres militaires en Espagne, front. and arms of Colon, calf extra, Cologne (Elzevier), 1666

 This very rare work contains a very long and highly interesting dedication to the Duc de Veraguas concerning the Family of COLUMBUS, in which he gives as a fact that Christopher Columbus first learnt the existence of America from a Spanish pilot in the Island of Madeira. Washington Irving treats the story of the Spanish pilot as a mere fable, but it is certainly very extraordinary that Galardi should have ventured in his dedication to the Descendant of the Discoverer of America to relate the story at full length, not as a rumour, but as a positive fact.

provoke a gibe, or excite a sneer at every thing most sacred and venerable, your ignorance of the oriental languages, your limited and far from acutely critical knowledge of the Latin and the Greek, and in the midst of all the prurient and obscene gossip of your notes—your affected moral purity perking up every now and then from the corrupt mass like artificial roses shaken off in the dark by some Prostitute on a heap of manure, your heartless scepticism, your unclassical fondness for meretricious ornament, your tumid diction, your monotonous jingle of periods, will be still more exposed and scouted than they have been. Once fairly kicked off from your lofty, bedizened stilts, you will be reduced to your just level and true standard. W. B."

 Privately printed for presents only. The following character of the work is written in ink by Mr. Beckford on separate sheet: "Of all the Idle braggadacio pedigree books I ever met with—this volume is perhaps the most consummately flummeracious.—Not even Ulster K. of Arms himself that indulgent receiver of goods of this kind, ever compiled or tolerated a choicer specimen, The numerous views of Totterdown Castles, hideous burying places, shabby genteel villas, quizzical modern portraits, old coppers of R[l] & Noble personages, retouched for the occasion & lugged in head and shoulders though worn to the stumps like the family itself, and right worthy of the work & in the best keeping with it—in short the genius of the defunct Sir R[d] Gammon, seems to have presided over this stupendous hodge podge—Sir R. G. whose baronetcy was created & entailed upon the Grace family by K. G. III. Sir R. G. the brother in law of a brace of Dukes—whose mother to be sure had the honour of being one of the Graces but whose father though originally we take for granted —— of —— in the county of —— was we are equally certain seated most comfortably & for many years as an apothecary in Cow Lane. 26 Aug. 1833.  The following note is written by Mr. Beckford on fly-leaf: p. 386. "'The blessed Virgin or some other heavenly Chimera'—happy expression to be sure—highly recommendatory for the future governess of Prince of Brazil. p. 426 And is it possible that Maria Graham, a professed scribbleress and little more, could ever have been encouraged even to dream of such a situation? Had she been a professed Cook, for which useful art—from the frequent mention of dainty morsels and savoury dishes in different pages of her Tours I rather conjecture she has some vocation—one might have seen some cause for the appointment. It is impossible in these revolutionary times to foresee all the degradation to which princesses may be compelled to stoop, and a knowledge of cookery skilfully instilled may turn out upon the spur of occasion a most happy accomplishment."

 Pronounced by Haym "Rarissimo e ricercatissimo."

2504 MIRABILIA ROMÆ, woodcuts, slightly cut in front margin, calf extra, gilt edges, by C. Lewis, EXTREMELY RARE
Romæ per Martinum de Amsterdam et Joannem Besicken, 1500

 It is an extraordinary fact that in this very curious guide-book printed in Rome the story of POPE JOAN is given as authentic. The excessive rarity of the work may have been caused by a rigid suppression of it at the time of the Reformation.

2505 MIRABILIA ROMÆ, Germanice, black letter, woodcuts, calf extra, gilt edges, by C. Lewis Rom, S. Planck, 1500

 The Mirabilia in German contains the History of Pope Joan, and in rarity far exceeds the Latin Work.

2506 MIRABILIS LIBER, qui Prophetias Revelationesque necnon Res mirandas preteritas, presentes et futuras aperte demonstrat. Prima pars Prophetias Revelationesque Latine scriptas secunda vero Gallico Ydiomate inventas enarrabit. 2 parts in 1, olive morocco extra, gilt edges, by Purgold
On les vend au Pellican en la Rue Sainct Jacques, s. d.

 On account of the singular fulfilment of several of the Prophecies of the French Revolution, this work has been eagerly sought after by Amateurs, and in consequence has become very scarce. Nodier's copy, which sold for 30 francs, would probably bring more than 100 francs now.

2507 MIRACLES NOSTRE DAME, black letter, woodcut on title, ruled, green vellum, very rare, unknown to Brunet small 4to. Rouen par J. Le Forestier, s. d.

 On the fly-leaf is written: "Très singulier—très comique—il n'y a qu'à le parcourir pour bien rire."

2639 Morgan (Lady) Life and Times of Salvator Rosa, 2 vol. portrait, 7 pages of MS. Notes by Mr. Beckford, half olive morocco, gilt edges, by C. Lewis 1824

 Mr. Beckford concludes the Notes in the first volume with: "There are flashes of genius and force of expression in this high-flown volume—still I have got through it with difficulty —not better informed about Salvator Rosa (the peg upon which the authoress has hung her festoons of tinsel and artificial flowers) than when I sat down to read it. As to the cuckow note which echoes thro' all its pages, continually repeating commonplace abuse of all constituted authorities and hackneyed incitements to revolution, it deserves not less contempt than abhorrence." See also last note in the second volume.
